MICHELE KOPPENHAVER

Quick, what's up nan? I really don't where to start (sorry because that's not the vetteran line), there are many many good times and many many trouble times which were fun anyway - Nan knows how to cause more trouble than we do - It all started - 4-11-87 - adams ave - and just when you thought it was safe enough - came Garbage night - then Florida SPRING Break - never to be forgotten - then Lupo's party - and finally Wildwood we sure went out of senior year with a bang - shit same room - same bed - always remember that T.I.U. So many things were ben through together - 2 prom even mardgra there was controversy at the first one - wh ben had a good time - I owe so many memories to you and so many thanks for being there when I needed you - You helped me in so many ways ways I don't even realize yet - But most of all you helped me grow up a little - with trying to help you with all the family shit and having to handle so many things together - me and you against the world always & with no help from anyone - helped me get independence which I really needed - maybe I have a long way to go but slowly and surely I will totally be me with no reasons putting me this way or that. That I definately owe to you - I couldn't fit everything in my senior wil so I'll leave the rest to you now - I want to give both of us a new world to conquer, all the power to always make constant waves, and the ability to be one of a few with only 1 face and most of all the biggest apology ever for the biggest mistake ever in junior year & big hug thanking you for putting it behind us lick, I don't know, t may be all over. tter not. We had som reat times together and maybe if you go to your head on straight we'll more. Love, Garrett

HOMECOMING QUEEN; EAST'S STAR RUNNER

Homecoming Queen. When you think of it, what comes to mind? A princess? An all-around person? Maybe an athlete? Or even maybe your best-friend? Well, for us and the student body, it is all of those things. The girls who were nominated to be candidates are all of those things and more. The girls nominated were Sue Blackowicz, Maria Cacoilo, Helene Crist, Linda Gillen, Sharon Grosso, Chris LaSpina, and Lisa Milano. Each of these girls is known for certain groups that she is in or for sports that she participates in. All are well known and respected throughout the entire school.

Sue Blackowicz, a former cheerleader, was nominated by the Raider Readout, of which she is the assistant editor, the Quill and Scroll, where she is an honorary member, the Photography Club, and the Chess Team. Sue is also involved in Community Action Program as a teacher's aide and she has participated in this year's Powder Puff football game.

Maria Cacoilo, a member of NHS, Culture Club, TEAM, the soccer team, and participant in ASAP activities, was nominated by the Marching Raider Marching Band, the Pom Pon Squad, the Flag Line, and the Color Line. Maria is also involved in volunteer work at the Garden State Rehabilitation Center and Community Memorial Hospital.

Helene Crist, a member of the Marching Raider PomPon Squad, NHS, the Dance Club, the Thespian Society, the Advanced Chorus, the Raider Blue Dancers, and the Eastside Theatre Company, was nominated by the Sound and Lighting Club, the Dance Club, the Eastside Theatre Company, the Thespian Society, and the Freshman, Mixed, and Advanced Chorus.

Linda Gillen, manager of the boys' soccer team, a member of the French Club, Culture Club, NHS, PLE, and previously a varsity basketball player, was chairperson of the Powder Puff football game and is an associate on Student Council. She was nominated by Student Council, PLE, the Class of 1989, and the Class of 1990.

Chrissy LaSpina, a member of FBLA and DECA, was nominated by FBLA, the Media Club, the Ski Club, and DECA. She is currently the Vice-President and Treasurer of Deca.

Lisa Milano, a member of NHS, the prom committee, PLE, and previously MVP in swimming, was nominated by the Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Freshman football teams, the Boys Spring Track Team, the Girls' and Boys' Swim Team, and the Weightlifting team.

This year's winner, Sharon Grosso, is a member of TEAM, AHOA, is captain of the Girls Cross Country team, and runs on Winter and Spring Track Teams. She was nominated by Boys and Girls Cross Country, Boy's Indoor Track, and Girls Winter Track. Sharon says, "I was shocked when I won, it was very close between Linda and me." Because track takes up so much of her time, Sharon can't get actively involved in anything else, although she does try to participate in TEAM and AHOA.

All in all, with Sharon as the winner, and Linda Gillen as the first runner-up, the student body chose two well-rounded students to represent them.

-Jessica Reo

THE CROWN IS PASSED

The nominees await the moment.

The royal ride in the rumble seat.

Life as a junior in high school has an exceptionally demanding schedule. Combining academics, sports, and school related or outside activities make it tough. Besides hectic schedules and maintaining daily life, junior year is supposed to be the best year in high school. We have so many new and exciting events to look forward to during the year that we will be most likely to remember throughout our lives.

Of course, the work is going to become more difficult. The academic part of the year is going to become more difficult. The academic part of the year will continually be this way to make us strive harder-especially those of us who plan to attend college. We will all have a lot of homework to do and tests and quizzes to worry about. An essay due in one class; a test in another. We all have to stay on our toes and quickly become acclimated to this new conditon and learn how to use the little time we have wisely. We all didn't expect such a drastic change in our school, as well as everyday lives, but the more quickly we adapt to this change, the faster we get the hang of it and succeed.

Something to look forward to ascertaining is our class rank. When everyone learns what their class rank is, it is new and exciting news that becomes the buzzing gossip of the school. Then, before we know it, the PSAT (Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test) and the SAT tests (Scholastic Aptitude Test) will creep up on us. Most of us will take these tests at the beginning and end of the year to try and improve our scores. Once we find our class rank and take our PSAT and SAT tests, we have to start thinking about graduation and college. Many of us will begin setting up guidance appointments with our counselors to look for colleges that will suit our needs as well as accept us. The search for the perfect college for each of us individually will be a long and hard one but that choice will determine our futures and how well we succeed.

A festive and radiant event which only happens junior year is the junior prom. Everyone gets dressed up (very formally of course . . .) to have an exceptionally superb night of dancing, eating, and socializing with friends new and old. Everyone works hard together to decorate the caferorium and make the evening the most memorable it can be so we can preserve it in our memories as a most enchanting night.

Other acknowledgements and achievements many but not all juniors look forward to is being accepted into the National Honor Society and obtaining a driver's license. For some of us the year will be highlighted by acceptance to the National Honor Society. We will fill up our schedules to the limit and join new and inviting clubs, sports, and activities to meet the requirements of the National Honor Society. In between all these things, we have to make sure to do well academically so we can keep up our grade point average. LICENSE. That word has such a beautiful ring in our ears. Taking the driving test is the day everyone has marked on their calendars. Before the end of the year, most of us will take Behind-the-Wheel which teaches us to drive and allows us to receive our permits. Then on we'll go to take our driving test and before we know it we will be driving. Good luck to everyone.

As the year closes to an end, we will have many fond memories to look back on and cherish. Junior year should be a time to look for our personal interests and also, an opportunity to find out more about ourselves. Everyday should be filled with new bits of knowledge and fresh views on different situations. Junior year is a year in which we all grow and become mature, responsible adults.

SOPHOMORES

So now you're a sophomore (no longer a freshman! yahoo!) your first day back from summer vacation, you know exactly where to go, you're familiar with the school. Sophomore year is the year to relax until you go on to bigger and better things. It is a time to really get those grades in. This is the first year many of you will be introduced to the PSAT if , of course, you decide to take it. Also, many sophomores get their class rings and all receive driver's theory, an exciting course that gets you on your way to becoming a responsible driver. More than likely, you'll have the usual dances to contend with and the winter semi-formal but basically the year is a very smooth one.

You may think about college early on and decide to take the PSAT test (preliminary scholastic aptitude test). Most times it is the first time that you are exposed to it. So you take it to see what it is like. The PSAT provides a basic outline of what you are up against in the near future when you decide to take the SAT's.

Sophomore year is the year for the class ring. The ring man from Jostens comes to our school and you receive packets, brochures, and order forms for your fings. For many people, your class ring becomes one of your holiday gifts because it always arrives just before the winter holidays. Each of us busily runs around school trying to decide what to put on both sides of our ring. No one knows what color stone they want (birthstone or school color), initials or name inside the ring, and so on. When everything is finally decided upon, you give your check and order form to the ring man. When the rings arrive, ready to wear, the old but familiar excitement of turning rings begins. We ask our close friends and classmates to turn our ring and then sign our pamphlet. Some superstitions about turning the ring are "Don't touch the stone!", "Turn it towards my pinky!", and last but not least "Turn it all the way around without letting go of it!" In a few weeks, the hustle bustle of ring turning dies down and the school quiets down.

This is the year your quest for driving starts. All sophomores receive driver's theory either second or third marking period. The course replaces gym for one marking period and teaches the basic dangers of driving, the driving laws, and how to become a responsible and respectable driver. Once you are finished with the course, you won't be able to wait for behind-the-wheel. You won't receive behind-the-wheel until junior year, though, unless you decide to take it over the summer or at a commercial driving school to receive your permits. Driver's theory is an exciting, yet educational class that gets you out of gym for an entire marking period and just about puts you in the driver's seat.

Although not too much happens in your sophomore year, it is your second year of high school and that only leaves two more to go. You still have the basic school stuff to deal with such as taking tests and quizzes and picking courses for your junior year which are all very important. All in all, sophomore year is still one of the best years of your life where you grow and learn to become responsible young adults. So good luck. Remember—two down; two to go.

FRESHMEN

Freshman year is the starting point of your future; it is where it all begins. The very first day of high school you enter, wide-eyed, full of anticipation and curiosity. The first thing you look for is your homeroom and when you finally arrive there, you are handed your schedule. Of course you have no idea where any of the classes are. After about a week, you begin to know your way around school pretty well and you become accustomed to it little by little. You find out high school life is very different from intermediate or elementary school. For example, the lockers in high school are a little different size and are a different shape, and you can run to your locker as many times as you want to. Also, you finally get to experience your first high school dance that you have heard so much about, and flower sales during lunch time. Another big difference is the time school starts and ends. You have to adapt yourself to getting up much earlier in the morning because high school starts at 7:25 A.M. Even though this may seem bad, it has its good points because you get out of school much earlier, which leaves you time to do other things after school. Although you get to see your old friends occasionally while passing in the hall, you will be meeting all kinds of new people. Don't forget, there are three other grades above you with lots of people to become acquainted with. In most cases, you will find someone older than you who will take you under his wing for the year and you go along for the ride. This special someone, whether it be a boy or girl, will show you the ropes and help you along when you need a shove. You will find though, that most of freshman year is used up finding out about the school and how it runs. You will look for clubs, activities, or sports that you might be interested in, of which there are many, and you will join the ones you think you will enjoy the most. You'll find that high school brings a little more freedom your way because you have a different class each period. You no longer have double period classes like you had in intermediate school. By the middle of the year, you begin to fit right in and you become part of the pulsing heart that keeps the school alive. When you finally adapt to all the new experiences in high school, it will be summer time and you will be all set for sophomore year. So you see, most of freshman year is spent exploring, but all the answers you will find will show you how terrific the next three years of high school will be and how many wonderful memories you will keep for the rest of your life.

For Mrs. Stephens, Teaching Is An Art

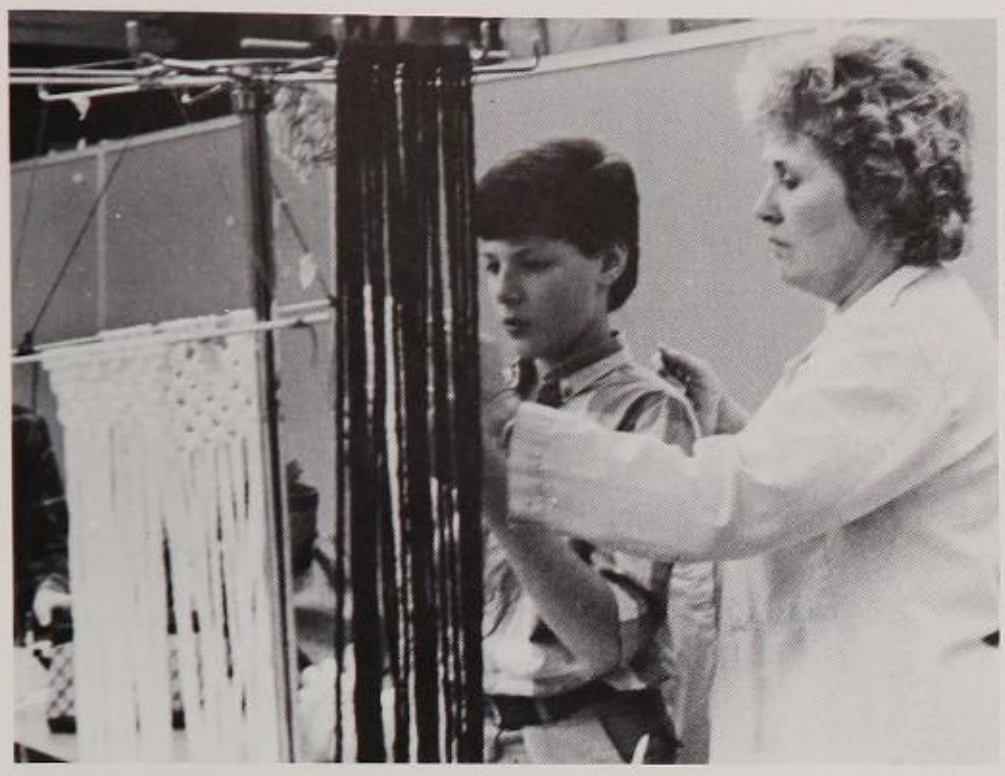
She has been seen as Dolly Parton, Fivel's sister (from An American Tale), Tweety Bird, a green-faced witch- even as a bunch of grapes! Is this evidence of spirit and involvement? You bet! But Lip Syncs and Spirit Weeks are just exciting sidelights for this dedicated art teacher. Mrs. Stephens brings her spirit and enthusiasm into the classroom.

Anyone who's spent any time in N04 will agree that the atmosphere is exciting. Whether you're there for art class or photography club, you can feel the energy everywhere.

Mrs. Stephens is always available. Need to learn dark room procedures? Print some pictures? Develop some negatives? Care to work before school? No problem. Just make an appointment. She'll be there.

For all the help she's given us, we, the '88 Yearbook Staff dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Stephens.

FACULTY



Toms River High School East is privileged to have the fine group of people we do to instruct us in both our academic subjects and about the world we'll enter after leaving high school. We speak for the entire student body when we say, thank you to our faculty.

Teachers Prove There Really Is Life After School

Assistant Principal Michael Paccione ready for a day on the bay.

Have you ever wondered if there is life after school for most of your teachers? We decided to disprove the rumor that teachers live away from the rest of the world by highlighting four teachers who have extra lives which are totally separate from school; Mr. Paccione, Mr. Daniels, Ms. Grill, and Mr. Soban.

While a few students may think Mr. Paccione achieves most of his enjoyment from assigning detention, his real fun comes when he is out sailing his small boat in races on the Bay. Almost every Sunday in the summer, Mr. Paccione can be seen racing his single-handed laser along with over two hundred people from the Barnegat Bay Yacht Racing Association. The group holds races every Sunday and the event lasts all day. Mr. Paccione sails a laser, which is a small boat that is operated by one person. The races are divided by size of boat, age and size of sail. The B.B.Y.R.A. involves approximately ten yacht clubs from the Bay area. The races are either five or ten miles in length. Mr. Paccione became involved in this activity as something to do with his two sons who are both High School East graduates. He states that boats are fairly expensive, but the only other cost is upkeep of equipment. Mr. Paccione has many reasons for his love of sailing. His love of competition and being with his family are on the top of his list.

Mr. Daniels' interests take place on more solid ground. He raises Arabian show horses he grooms, trains and prepares for competition. He also has part ownership of three other horses in California. His local horses compete anywhere on the eastern seaboard circuit region. He got started in this venture through his wife, who had a lifelong interest in horses. Mr. Daniels says that the horses require a lot of work. He said that much of his life revolves around the horses. His wife runs the shows but he does much of the preparation. Mr. Daniels feels working with the horses is fun.

Ms. Grill enjoys spending much of her time underwater. She enjoys scuba diving in this area and further off-shore. Ms. Grill dives from April to the beginning of December. This is the third year in which Ms. Grill has participated in this sport. Last year she received her diving certification. Since she started diving on a trip to Bermuda, where she went snorkeling, most of her vacations are spent underwater. Ms. Grill says the initial cost of the sport is high, around eleven hundred dollars, but refills of air are only three dollars. She enjoys swimming in the sea and likes to go wreck diving.

Mr. Soban's interests are the most profitable of the four. He is the construction business as a general contractor. For the most part, Mr. Soban builds custom homes, but he does some commercial construction as well. As a general contractor, he coordinates the design and construction of the house. He does all the work that does not require a licsence. Starting in the business with building when he built his own house and then was approached by someone else to build his house. He builds anywhere in the New York-New Jersey area. Employing several teachers from this school including Mr. Patalunas, Mr. Maurio, Mr. Burak, and Mr. Lucas, Mr. Soban enjoys building because of its differences from school.

Proving that there is "life after school", Mr. Paccione, Mr. Daniels, Mr. Soban, and Ms. Grill show how teachers can enjoy themselves without their students.

STUDENT LIFE

School is essentially a place of learning. Academics is its main goal, but school also teaches some valuable lifetime lessons, and many social responsibilities. East is a very social place where hundreds of people meet and talk every day. After school activities provide a superb place to spend time with other students. The opportunity to work with others your own age is an invaluable experience in dealing and working in harmony with peers in our society.

Every day after school there is a wealth of activities going on. From baseball, basketball, and football to Key Club, class meetings, and International Club. Everyone can find a place to be because there is something for everyone to do. The activities range from the thought provoking to the sports-minded or just plain fun!

There is also a constant search for talented students, whether it be musically or artistically. Our school offers a band program that includes Marching, Jazz, Concert, and for those classical music lovers, an orchestra. Along the lines of talent, also included is our artists. Mr. Rose is always looking for students to help decorate and design the showcases that are in the lobbies that greet our visitors.

To name every club and team would be nearly impossible, but we have tried to give you a rough idea about East. Get involved! It's our school, and we are offered the best of everything. We can make it the best!

All-Star Anything Goes Almost Didn't Go.

Because of the condition of the new gym floor, this year's All Star Anything Goes was held in the cafetorium.

Volunteers from each class made up the teams which competed for points in various events. Judges for the fun evening were Mr. and Mrs. Roma, Mr. Schaefer, and Mr. Peterson.

Among the games were volleyball, an egg throw contest, novelty relays, and a tug of war. The final event of the evening was a pie eating contest in which the class presidents feasted on pie to earn points for their classes. Brian Schmid won for the juniors, followed by Drew Aromando, sophomore class president, Janine Lenart, senior class president, and Michelle Fowlin, freshman class president.

The juniors succeeded in defeating the other classes in a tough struggle.

Tina Leone and Michael Scheumeister in a relay event

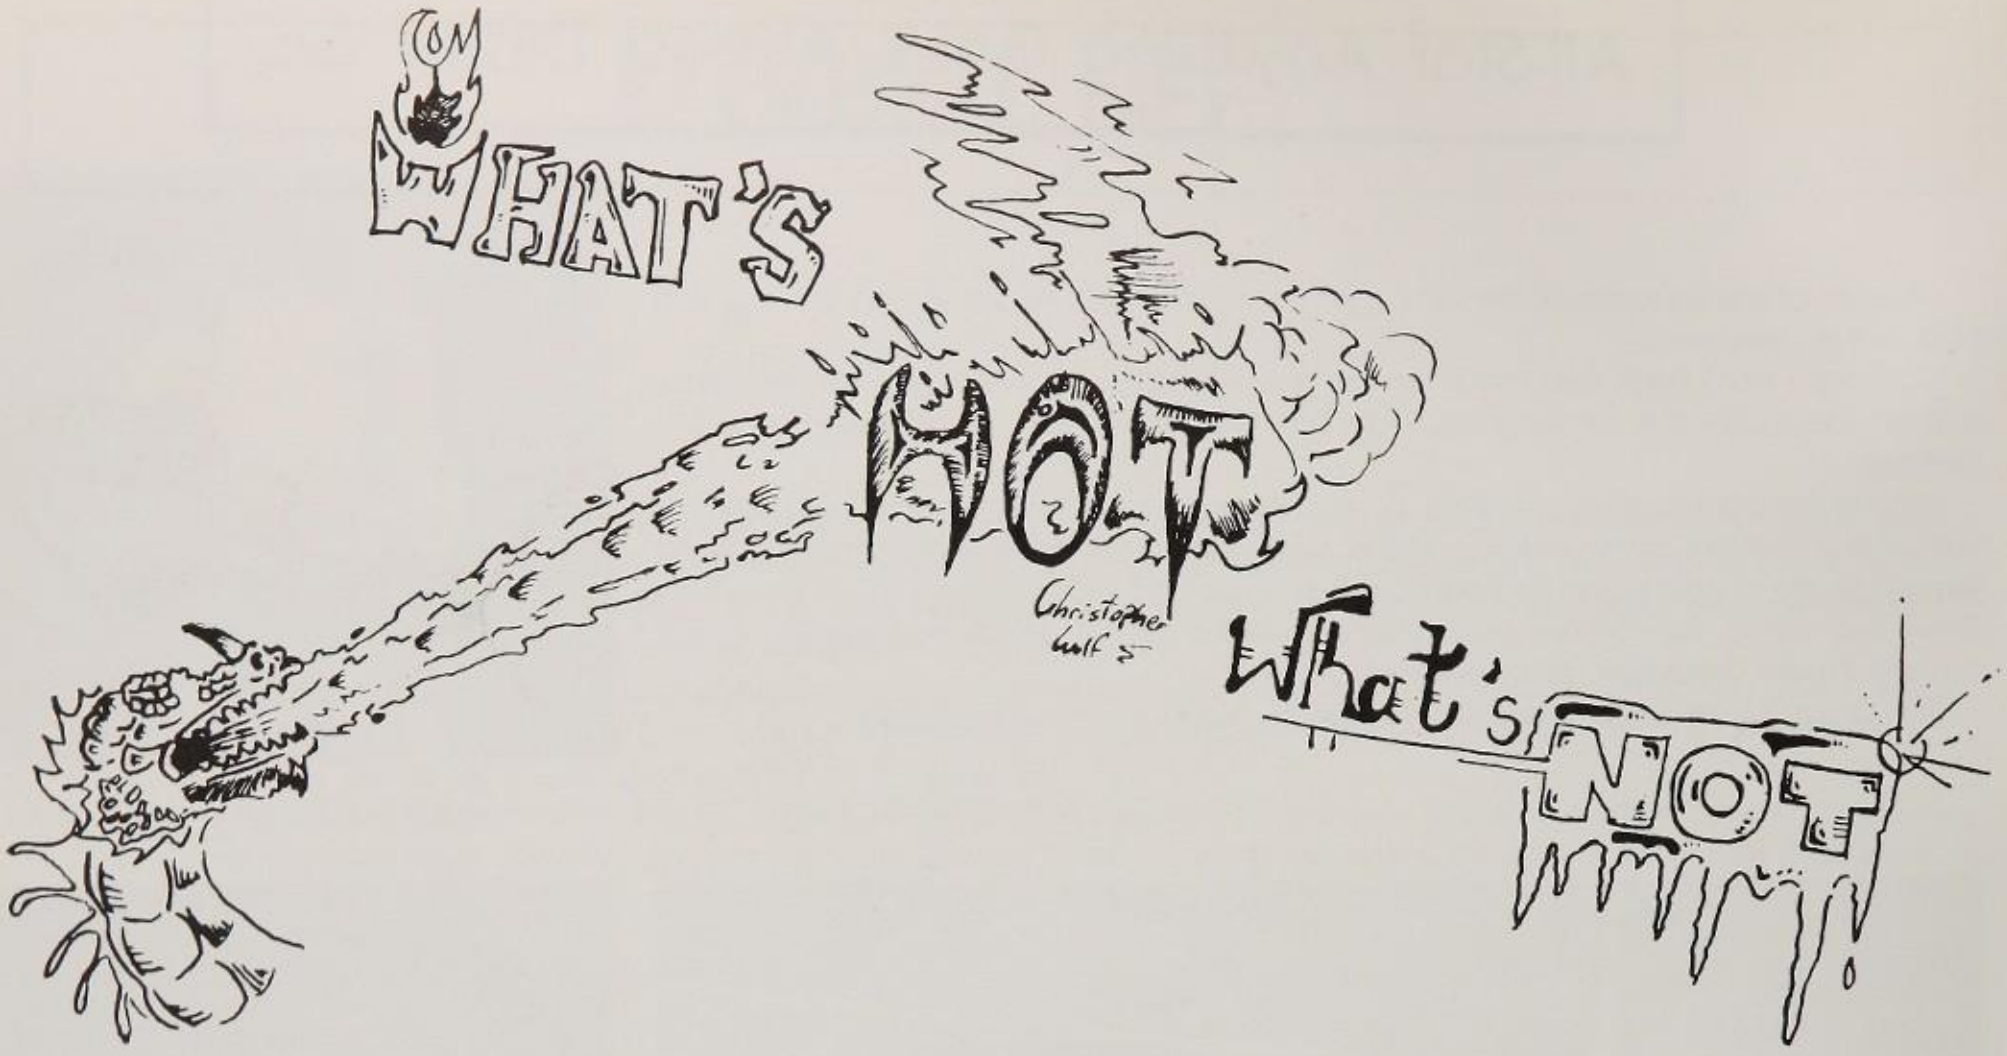
Spirited freshmen give their all in the tug of war.



This year's yearbook theme of 'Reflections' means different things to different people. We reflect on good times, on ourselves, and on our feelings. We will attempt to recap this year so that later, your own 'reflections' will bring you back to the carefree days of high school.

The year of 1987 saw the students of High School East behind the wheel (or a least wanting to be behind the wheel) of flashy Iroc-Z's or Suzuki Samuri's. Mustang GT was another name that rang high in our heads when 'What's Hot' was mentioned. Cruising around Toms River, you were probably seen wearing rugby shirts, turtle necks, cozy sweaters, and of course, the standard Levi's, or maybe a short skirt. Leather, however, made a strong showing in 1987 also.

The box offices were jammed this year with the releases of many good flicks, among them were the spine tingling Fatal Attraction, the hilarious RAW, and the romantic Dirty Dancing. Meanwhile, the airwaves were filled with the sounds of George Michael, who after going solo, topped the charts with his Faith album. U2's The Joshua Tree was very popular as well. Also getting off to a strong start in 1987 was the youngster from Lakewood, Tiffany.

Students this year seemed to become more socially aware with a sort of 60's revival. Peace and Love, the big theme in the 60's, made a comeback, but noticeably absent from the 'new' era of love was drug abuse. Students found they could do just as well without the use of them.

Since Toms River is a beach community, ocean dumping was a major issue that raised the social consciences in '87.

As in the past, we looked for anything and everything to make our lives a little easier. We swarmed to anything hi-tech like bees swarm on honey. Computers, VCR's, CD palyers, movie cameras, and anything with flashing lights or buttons to push caught our fancies and dollars more than ever. It was a banner year for the electronics industry.

Well, Seniors, this is it. What you considered hot during your high school career:

To wear: college sweatshirts, worn-out jeans, argyle socks, loafers, boots, docksiders, acid washed anything.
In fast foods: pizza, burgers, subs
In perfumes: Colors, Liz Claiborne, Poison
In Colognes: Polo, Chaps, Drakkar
To do on weekends in TR: Nothing!
What's Not: Today's hot is tomorrow's not. Andy Warhol said it all:
"Everybody is famous for fifteen minutes."

The Student Council of High School East, advised by Mrs. Roma, is the link between the administration and the students of our school. Its job is to help make our school a better place. One of its major issues this year resulted in the long awaited parking lot, which accomodated ninety-nine more seniors' cars. It also organized and carried out the activities of Spirit Week, which was the competition among the classes for decorating the hallways.

Run by Laura Ruth, the president of the entire Student Council, meetings were held in a parliamentary fashion. This was the chance for anyone who felt the need to speak out against a problem to have done so.

The regular class meetings were held by the presidents of each class—Janine Lenart-senior class, Brian Schmid junior class, Drew Aromondo-sophomore class, and Michele Fowlin-freshman class. The individual classes also did a lot of fundraising, such as candy sales, flower sales, dances, and data match.

Representing the entire student body, the Council had a productive year of activities planned throughout the school year.

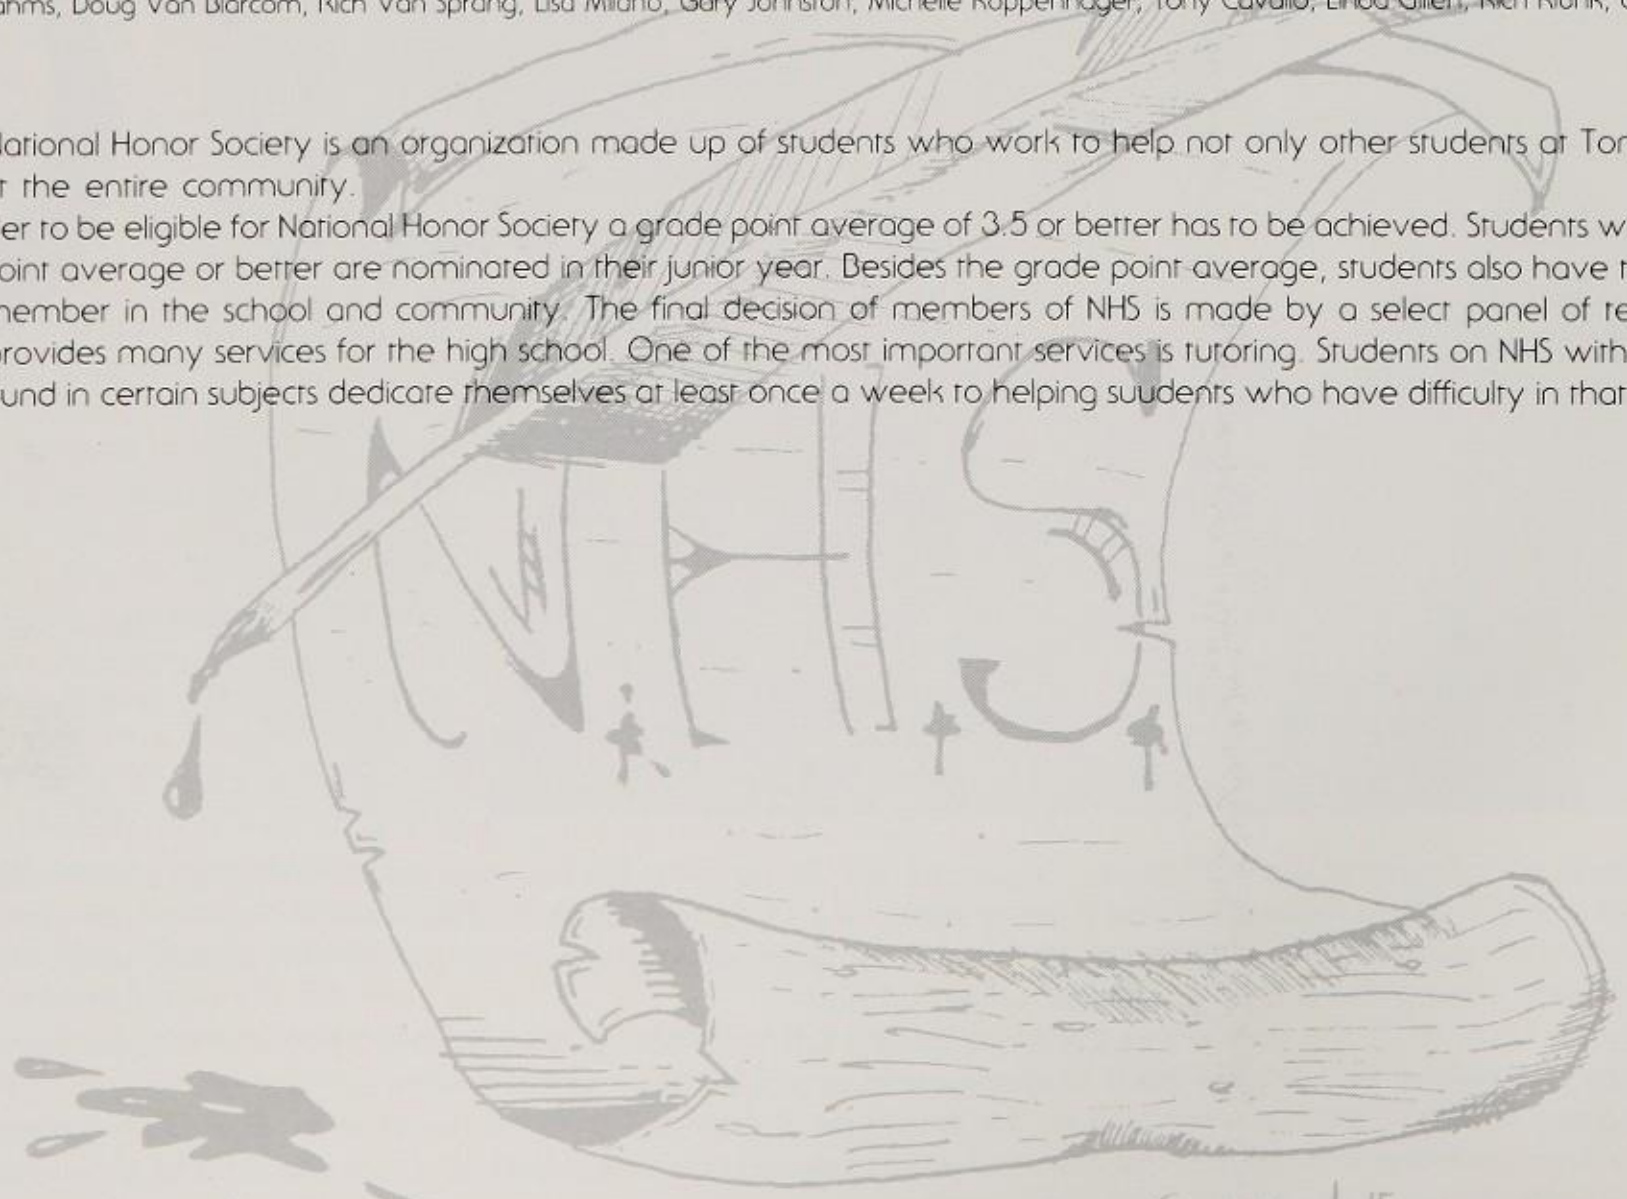
The National Honor Society is an organization made up of students who work to help not only other students at Toms River East, but the entire community.

In order to be eligible for National Honor Society a grade point average of 3.5 or better has to be achieved. Students with a 3.5 grade point average or better are nominated in their junior year. Besides the grade point average, students also have to be an active member in the school and community. The final decision of members of NHS is made by a select panel of teachers.

NHS provides many services for the high school. One of the most important services is tutoring. Students on NHS with a good background in certain subjects dedicate themselves at least once a week to helping suudents who have difficulty in that subject.



JOURNALISM STUDENTS AIM FOR TOTAL COVERAGE

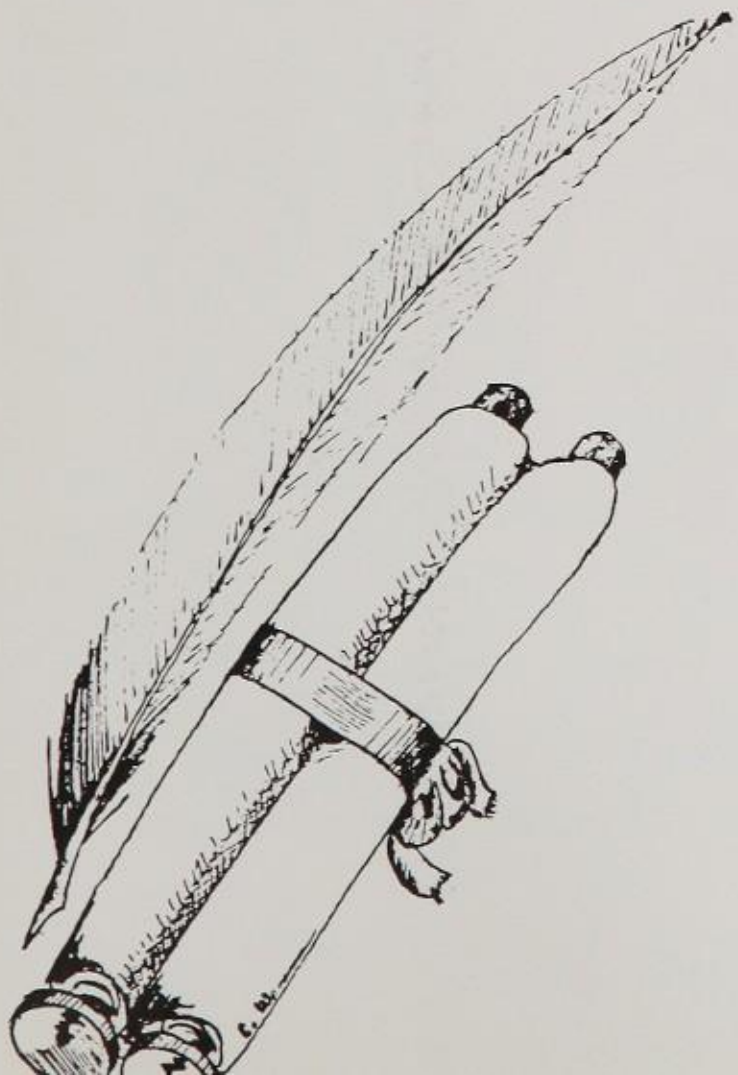
The Raider Readout, advised by Mrs. Hartmann, is High School East's school newspaper. It is produced seven times throughout the school year. Students work eighth period and sometimes work after school to finish the "wax-up", layouts, type set, or anything extra that needs to be done.

To decide on articles, staff members "brainstorm", thinking of as many topics as they can and choosing the best. The staff tries, within the seven issues, to cover every school sport and major event whether in a feature article of simply a column.

The Readout is type set at Toms River H.S. South and is then sent to a printer to be produced. The final copy is sent back to the staff who makes the final delivery to the students.



Quill and Scroll, advised by Mrs. Hartmann, is an International Honor Society for Journalism students. The members of this astute club fundraise for various activities that they have and for equipment that they may need specifically for their group. A majority of Journalism II students participate in this club but it is open to anyone. The club meets after school to discuss what fundraiser they will have and they plan day trips for themselves.

Key Club is a club for students who wish to help the school, families, and the community. The club, advised by Mrs. Pisarek-Maltzman, is headed by President, Karen Dalbora, Vice-President, Paul Cavallaro, Secretary, Tracy Gretkowski, Treasurer, Steve Heruty, Bulletin Editor, Ray Bonwell,and Creative Arts Director, Pete Barron.

Extensive fundraising, including flower sales, dances, and candy sales, help the organization sponsor their causes. They have adopted a grandparent from a nearby nursing home; they have a foster child in the Phillipines to whom they write; they donate to United Way, Deborah Hospital, American Cancer Society, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Muscular Dystrophy Association, and food to needy families at Thanksgiving. Key Club is truly a service organization.

T.E.A.M. and A.H.O.A. are two activities that are very significant to student life at High School East. T.E.A.M, Teens Educating Against Alcohol Misuse, is a club through which students learn and teach younger students about alcohol. It involves giving lectures to students and using their peers to answer questions that they may have of that they may be afraid to ask. T.E.A.M. also involves demonstrating "scenes" of problems of instances that may occur between students and their friends, whether it is drunk driving or accepting alcohol from a friend at a school dance.

T.E.A.M is not always a place for seriousness; there's time for fun also. With the help of Bob Petruski, a former teacher at East, T.E.A.M. members enjoy activities such as skiing and rollerskating.

A.H.O.A., Athletes Helping Other Athletes, is an activity having basically the same purpose as T.E.A.M. It involves student athletes helping other student athletes fight against drugs and alcohol. This program is helpful because it makes students aware of the problems that all athletes face, whether it is the pressure to be the best or pressure to fit in.

Both programs are advised by Mr. Petruski in the A.S.A.P. office, and involve students from all three high schools. Because the program is a successful as it is, it is steadily increasing its membership and people who want to can be involved in one way or another.

The Library Aides are students who are involved in transporting VCR's, raperecorders, and filmstrip projectors throughout the school. Their jobs are not as easy as they seem, though. The Aides help to keep the books in order and assist in checking books in and out of the library. Because of these hard working students, the work of the librarians is much easier.

PLE: History Beyond The Classroom

Chris Vetter questions a candidate Blomquist

Cheryl Tarby mediates at a candidates debate.

It is a history class and more. Political and Legal Education is composed of three major areas: politics, government, and law. Each area contains its own events, but they are all incorporated into one class.

The politics aspect of P.L.E. allows students to campaign along with a candidate who is running for office, become involved in voter registration drives, hold political debates, and participate in the state assembly and debate, as well as the Dover Township Committee.

The government phase of P.L.E. includes model congress, public speakers, pressure groups, S.O.A.P. (Students Organized Against Pollution). Activities include a field trip to Ciba-Geigy and a trip to Washington, D.C. to observe Congress in session.

The law section of P.L.E. includes a mock trial, a field trip to the police department, learning about constitutional law, and an internship program in the county court where the students sit in on a jury selection and a trial.

P.L.E. teacher Gary Vito has been bombarded with the number of students who would like to join. From the seventy-five to one hundred students that apply, Mr. Vito can choose only twenty-five to be in his class. In order for a student to be considered, he/she must be interested, mature, and responsible.

Back: Denise Hamilton, Gerri Bernard, Marc Abram, Nicole Bertani, South Student, Ms. Larkin. Middle: Rich O'Malley, Glenn Perry, Renee Sherman, Dean Perry. Front: North Student, Bill Wasko, Mike Wolff, Pete Rizzo.

C.A.S.T., a two year course offered at East, is taught by Mr. Balog, the program director, Mrs. Kaszuba, the English-Arts director, and Mrs. Larkin, the technical director. It is an interesting course that involves using camera equipment, lighting equipment, sound equipment and much more. The thirty-six students involved in the course include students from North and South, although the majority if from East.

In the studio, different jobs are assigned to different students according to their ability and the jobs are usually kept throughout the year to strengthen them in that area. The positions offered are cameraman, technical director, director, audio technician, floor manager, video tape editor, lighting technician, and producer.

There are two classes that C.A.S.T. holds: one class produces the New's Show and the other class produces Jersey Beat. Both shows are shown on Channel 21, the school's cable channel, Monday and Thursday evenings. This year, Jersey Beat went statewide on February 11, 1988. It is to be shown on forty cable CTN stations with a viewing audience of over one million, a rarity for a high school television station. Also this year, Good Morning America used a segment of Toms River H.S. South's Marching Indians that C.A.S.T. had filmed. Both of these incidents show the professionalism of our students and their ability to produce educational programs.

The team is advised by Ms. Finklestein and this year's seniors are Terry Lawlor, Milford Winter, Darren Guarnaccia and Kim Sieminski. The captain and co-captain are seniors Rob Jeffers and Darren Guarnaccia.

High School East's band program requires a lot of time and effort on the part of the involved students. It incorporates a class during eighth period and usually takes place after school during all seasons. The Wind Ensemble, directed by Mr. Tony Tafrow, and the Symphonic Band, directed by Mr. Ron Smith, hold both winter and spring concerts. Most students that participate in concert band also participate in the marching band. Marching band takes up many hours of hard work and is practiced during any available time. This year, the Marching band performed on the Robert Klein Time Show in New York City, and will be going to Virginia for a three part competition.

My Fair Lady, approximately a three-hour musical, was this year's play production. The show, chosen by Mr. Yack and Mrs. Archer in the spring of the previous year, took literally thousands of man hours to put together.

From audition to performance usually takes about three months, during which actors and everyone involved in any phase of the play devote a great deal of their time.

In a musical, anyone who auditions must sing, act, and sometimes dance. ETC plays usually require 35 to 40 people and have 45 to 50. Students seem to be naturally interest in performing.

Another part of production is set design. Students are encouraged to both work on sets and act. This year a graduate of East, Megan Ingraham, is overlooking the design of the sets and holds the position of scenic artist.

Music is a major part of any production. East students sit in with professional musicians for each performance. Along with the musicians is the chorus, giving the music life and enhancing the production immensely.

The production is supervised by Mr. Yack, Drama Director, Mrs. Archer, Choral and Band Director, Mr. Vito, House Manager, Publicity Coordinator, and Photographer, Ms. Martucci, Costume Coordinator, and Ms. Finkelstein, Make-up Coordinator. As the time of the play the teachers basically "live" at the school, getting everything ready for the first performance. They are an essential part of the production; without them there would not be a play.

Interested in play production or performing on stage? Eastside Theater Company is open to anyone who is interested, dedicated, and willing to give up 20 to 25 hours a week.

DECA STUDENTS COMPETE IN MARKETING AND MERCHANDISING

D.E.C.A. is the largest youth club in H.S. East and in the nation. With one hundred and ten members, it is the largest in the state.

D.E., open to sophomores through seniors, teaches selling, merchandising, and fashion. It gives students the chance to compete in an area of interest that they have chosen. Advisors Glenn Albano and Mark Criscuolo work with each of the students to perfect their presentations for competitions.

On January 19, 1988, at a Regional Conference at Middlesex Community College, fifty-five students qualified for the state conference held at the Great Gorge Resort Hotel. Competing with other members of the same group throughout the state, Joe Albanese qualified for nationals held in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The 1987-88 school year marked the beginnings of the Cycling Club Team at High School East. The club-team was open to anyone interested in touring or racing bicycles. Their first race was that of the Coor's Cycling Classic in Point Pleasant Beach, NJ., where team members Rich Klunk, Travis McHugh, and Bob Cressen placed third, fifth, and sixth respectively. Some of their members also participated in the South Jersey Wheelmen's Jersey Devil Century Tour, which consisted of one hundred miles and took approximately five to five and a half hours to complete. Some of their team members participated in the High School State Cup Race in New Brunswick, NJ, where team members Rich Klunk and Travis McHugh took second and sixth places in the senior division. Bob Cressen took ninth in the junior division, and Scott Simpson took fourth place in the sophomore division. Overall, the team ranked fourth in the state of New Jersey this year.

Surfing is an old sport that many people consider to be now at its peak. It used to be that a surfer would take his "10 foot, 25 pound log and hang 10." Now he takes his "6 foot light-weight stick and rips off the lip floaters." On days when there were no waves, surfers would attach wheels to small pieces of wood. This is the origin of skating. Now skaters have taken these ingenious pieces of wood to their limit.

This year's "Winter Wonderland" was a social extravaganza. The successful semi-formal, organized by Student Council and advised by Mrs. Roma, was in the planning since September. Chairpersons for the dance were Tina Leone, Faith Dolan, and Jill Horgan. Charged with most of the major decisions, they selected the caterer, favors, decorations, planned the decorating and still had time to enjoy the dance.

Approximately two hundred and ten students, frosh through seniors, attended the dance, which was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Roma, Mrs. Juwoto, Ms. D'Agostino, Ms. Martucci, and Mr. and Mrs. Gulcynski. Students and chaperones alike enjoyed dancing to the upbeat music and having a good time with their close friends. Because of the success, the dance will definitely be held in future years.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE: AN ENLIGHTENING EXPERIENCE

Top: Shizue Fukushima in Japan's Disney World.
Bottom: Shizue's last day in Japan.

Coming to the U.S. to be enlightened, East's four foreign exchange students, have indeed enlightened us with explanations of their cultures. Each of these cultures is very different from the culture we live in.

These exchange students come from Japan, England, Spain and Germany. Their reasons for coming to Toms River East vary from England's David Saltman wanting a cultural experience, to Japan's Shizue Fukushima wanting to study conversational English.

How the students became exchange students ranged from Susanne Ortmuller from Germany who wrote to an organization and asked for a family, to Aurelio Herranz from Spain, who is staying with the same family that his sister stayed with last year.

The school systems that these students came from differ greatly from the one we are used to. Shizue came from an all girls high school where they wore uniforms. They weren't allowed to wear make up, have permanents, have pierced ears or a manicure. David came from a school system that was very strict. They had to wear a full uniform and they were suspended if they did not comply. Susanne thinks the classes are harder in Germany. Aurelio srated that school and teachers here are better and more helpful.

Stating that the biggest problem was the adjustment to the English language, the students felt that socially there was hardly any adjustment at all. Thyy all enjoyed their experiences here especially skiing and the friendships they formed.

Surely, they will never forget their year spent at Toms River East. Perhaps they will all bring back something different from our culture to their culture.

. . . . IN EITHER DIRECTION

Jennifer Ball enjoys sightseeing as part of her year abroad.

On the opposite end of the continent an East student is experiencing foreign exchange.

Jennifer Ball is spending her junior year at Toms River East in Italy. Her reasons for becoming an exchange student was for the travel, new experiences and a chance to become bi-lingual.

Jennifer's quest to become an exchange student began when she and her family were interviewed by the Rotary Club who arranged for her stay in Italy. After several interviews and written essays, the Rotary Club selected her Italian family. This is where Jennifer's odessey began. Some of the obstacles she had to overcome were the language barrier and Italian eating habits. She spoke no Italian and her new family spoke only a few words of English. Her new family's custom of eating included very little or no breakfast and a very large lunch around 2:00 and at 8:00 in the evening they ate another large meal. Her Italian family thought she was not eating enough at first.

In the Italian school system a student goes to school for thirteen years. Their school week is six days long. There are more freedoms in the classroom. According to Jennifer, "smoking is allowed in school and you can get up and walk around during class." Students are also more involved in social or political situations, sometimes striking to protest certain issues. Jennifer's experience inclused crossing a picket line to attend classes.

Some of the things Jennifer liked about Italy is that there are no curfews. Since there is no legal drinking age, young people can go to the discoes. An average evening at the disco ends at 4 or 5 a.m.

Jennifer's Italian adventure was unforgettable!

The yearbook staff, advised by Mrs. Johanna Gonzalez, is an year-round activity that takes place in an eighth period yearbook/study hall and after school and aims at recording the events of that year. The yearbook staff designs each page that goes into the yearbook. Each member decides on each photograph, piece of artwork, and article that appears on the page. They then draw a layout of the page and submit it to "Mrs. G" for approval. Once approved, the pages are sent to the publisher for printing and binding. Then begins the endless wait until the finished product arrives.

SPORTS

Tom River High School East's sports program incorporates all types of sports into its schedule. The students must try out and are evaluated on their first and second performances. The performances give the coaches a feel for the students and their capabilities. They have the ability to judge who will work to improve their skills in each sport. Each sport is very demanding on the student who makes the team. The student must work into their schedule time for practice, games, and schoolwork. Teachers, as well as coaches, expect that the grades of the students are average or above average, so that the student does not lose the privilege of being on the team.

Our program includes many sports. It consists of soccer, football, field hockey, baseball, basketball, tennis, golf, and other selected teams. Each team consists of strong members that work hard at their sport. All are dedicated and the result last year was a win in the county sports competition. Our school has the most wins in all of the schools in our county. As of this winter, we are in the lead for the county title again. For the ninth year in a row, High School East has had a very successful sports program and under the supervision of Athletic Director, William Lundy, and our many fine coaches, we look forward to many more winning seasons.

Go East!

Go Fight Win!

These were the words of encouragement that fans heard during the 1987-1988 athletic season. They supported our teams, cheering them on to victory throughout the year. Clad in the traditional black and silver uniforms, they were the peppy, hard-working Raider Cheerleaders. Appearing for the first time in the 87-88 season were male cheerleaders John Schaible, Lee Skopelitis, Marc Figueras, Shawn Heckler, and Chris Heckler, who added team spirit and enthusiasm.

Winning the state championship, the cheerleaders represented Toms River HS East during February in Anaheim, California. They returned; winning the first runner-up in the coed division in the National Cheerleading Championship. Senior Chris Feimer and junior Marc Figueras were named to the All-Star Team in the Hula Bowl in Hawaii.

Also supporting the Varsity Squad was the Junior Varsity Squad, which consisted of Lillian Grescavage, JoAnne Morrocco, Jen Reilly, Loriann Flemming, Beth Massaro, Angela Stella, Monique Rosario, Christa Hahn, Kathy Mack, Terri Pfaff, and Faith Dolan.

The Boys and Girls Diving Team had a tremendous year! They worked hard and supported each other throughout the year.

Louise Barlow and Cindy Prins have returned for the third outstanding year. although Louise Barlow suffered a severe ankle injury during the season and missed a few meets, she will return next year ready for competition.

The Boys Diving Team was led by Kevin Brennan and Jason Gurskis, who both scored in the top 10 at Shore Conference. Weightlifting Team Strives For Power

A workout is seen on the leg press.

Weightlifting, coached by Mr. Ralph Carbone, is more than just lifting weights. This year the weight room devices are being used to build muscles and also to strengthen them. Any day after school, students and also teachers, can be found at the curling machine, bench press, or rowing machine. Some are in an athletic sports and wish to strengthen those muscles for a better performance. Others are working to build larger more powerful muscles for competition in weight lifting. Still others are on an off-season sport training program to build strength for the next season. All of these reasons cause a flurry of activity at East's weight room machines.

The 1987-88 Ice Hockey season began positively as the Raider Varsity defeated Summit High School 5 to 1. This was the first game for the East skaters in their new conference: the New Jersey Interscholastic Ice Hockey League. The Raiders joined a new conference and became part of the toughest division in New Jersey ice hockey. Teams from this division had won the State Championship every year since the tournament was created.

The thrill of victory!

Victorious once more!!

The team was led by three senior captains, Mike Vogt, Ken Hughes, and Wayne Haythorn. Raider skaters also featured seniors Ed Mount and Ken Spacek. This was a rebuilding year since seventy-five percent of the 1986-87 team had graduated in June. The young Raiders were organized around senior defenseman, Ken Hughes, and a young defensive corp of juniors: Steve Lee, Brian Bury, and freshmen: Mike Jablonski, and Eric Hedin. Goal tending was in the hands of junior Mike Strada and freshman Errol Haythorn.

The offensive team centered around two lines. The scoring line of Mike Vogt, and juniors Chris Tschupp and Lou Centranni. The checking line of Wayne Haythorn, Ken Spacek, and freshman Marty Morrison had to reduce the opponents' chances of scoring if the Raiders were to have a third consecutive successful campaign. The East Icers were also aided by juniors, Mike Cullen, Brian Schmid, sophomore Robert Poskay, and freshmen Craig Handwerker, Steve Sarosy, Tom Loftus, and Chris Viola.

The Raiders defeated Brick HS for the first time in Ice Hockey play. The East Icers doubled their success by taking both games.—Another first. The Raiders qualified for the Gordon Cup Play-offs for the first time.

Boys Track Has Record-Breaking Season.

Lance DiFabio, Rob Roma, Mark Jancze, Tim Greer, Mike Flett, and Eric Plaron all either tied or broke school records this season. Many of the athletes worked extremely hard this year towards personal bests. In big meets this year, the team placed 13th in the State Group IV relays, 2nd in the Ocean County relays, 3rd in the Ocean County Individual Championships, 9th in the Shore Conference Championships, and 18th in the Group IV State Individual Championship. Tim Greer paced the Raiders to a good season, placing 1st in the County and Shore and going on the place 4th in the Group IV State Championships and eventually running in the meet of champions. Setting three scholl records and two relay records, Tim Greer was the most valuable athlete for the 87-88 season.

The team would also like to thank the coaches for helping them to an outstanding season: Mr. George Schrader, Mr. John Crowley, and Mr. Ron DeVito.

Shawn Walsh broke the school record in the shot put with a throw of 40' 5½" and became state champion. Other performances from Diane Brown, Sharon Grosso, Nancy Goodall, Michelle Bull, Vicki Brown, Darlene Divver, Jen Goodall, and Lisa Hendricks led this year's team.

Lady Raiders Become Tri-Champs

Nancy Goodall is ready for the handoff from Kelly Colaiacovo.

Kelly Colaiacovo is pleased with her performance.

During the 1987 spring season, under a new head coach, Mr. Altizio, the Lady Raiders Track Team did some great things. The season started off a little scarey; they lost to Lakewood, a power house and new member of Class A South. Brick had already beaten Lakewood, so it was on the line; East had to beat Brick.

Under captains Nicole Milligan and Opal Leonard, they pulled together and did something they hadn't done in three years; they beat Brick. With the help of Shawn Walsh, Darlene Divver, Sharon Grosso, Jill Bush, Jen Goodall, and Diane Brown, they became Class A South tri-champs. This 1988 spring season year, they have a battle on their hands. Captains Shawn Walsh, Sharon Grosso, and Diane Brown will try to lead them to another Class A South title.

Returning Experience Strengthens '88 Baseball Team

Coaches Dan Dietrich and Bill Frank anticipating a successful season.

During the 1987 Baseball season, the Raiders won the South Jersey Group IV State Championship title. Led by Phil Strada, Walt Currie, Chris Wagner, and Nick Werkman, the Raiders proved to a tough, dedicated team; a first year battle for state championship.

An abundance of talent is seen by returning players: senior Mark Pappalardo, Bob Wiseman, Pete Petrizzo, and Darren DeGennaro, juniors Chris Tschupp, Colby Hayles, Brian Pietrewicz, Jean-Pierre Oberti, and Greg Short. Micki—
I'll miss you oh so much the days will never be the same. If nothing changed you are still going (Rutgers) then i can come and visit. I wish i could list all the great times but not enough room. Just to name some of the major ones. Depeche Mode 02, where's my car? Our friendship and some others. I will never forget them. Oh yeah—Night before New Years and New years Eve. (Schippa Vogt) I'll miss those missions. I just remember the one night when you tripped me as we were running away. Min—I forgot my pocket book at Adam's be right back I could go on forever but i guess i should leave room for other people. Always remember I love you. (and Robert Downey) And our friendship was one of the best anyone could ever have wanted. So start planning on next years Spring Break and who gonna win the contest. Don't forget me!

!!!. forever and alwa

Micki,

I am going to ~~to~~ ...

so much that I can[']t ...

even explain. Our friendship ...

is the greatest & will always ...

stay that way because of our promise ...

You mean so much to me and you know it ...

don't ever doubt anything about our friendship would ...

nothing could ever possibly ruin it because we both ...

let it. I am going to be one bummin boy the day you ...

leave because I don't hang ~~out~~ at my house more then I ...

with you & Snip. I won't know what to do. You have changed m...

so much & that is for the better including my attitude & the way

I act towards people. I love you kiddo & that will never ever change.

My heart is filled with so many great memories that it would take me this whole book to write about but the most important day of our friendship would have to ~~be~~ be Mischief Night '87. That was the beginning of a great friendship. I want to thank you for many things especially our friendship great times, and my friendship that you save me with Gina & many other things.

Whenever you need anything you call me & I ~~will~~ will always be there for anything. I love you so much. If something ever does happen but I ~~doubt~~ it will. I just want to thank you & I will never forget you. I hope when the right man comes around that he's everything that you have always wanted & more. You deserve nothing but the best. I have faith in you that you will succeed in everything you do but good luck what ever you do & where ever you are. When ever I hear that song

"Anything for you" you know who I will be thinking about. Never forget me because I will never forget you.

1-4-3,

Mikey

Neill the Milk Man

P.S. Please keep in touch.

I am going to miss you.
